Review:

The Forsyth's Mill historical site contains a shining example of a well-maintained, DEC-approved single track mountain bike trail. Whilst it doesn't offer a lot in terms of elevation change, the trail can be ridden fast and hard and will still provide great wearying enjoyment for pro and beginner alike.

It offers the odd berm, drop, sweeping singletrack, rhythm sections, bucket loads of WA's finest pea gravel, and also boasts Perth's first legitimate shore-style feature.
